

HUNTSVILLE DEFENSE FIRM'S PARTNERSHIP ANNOUNCED

Two Huntsville Based Defense Contractors Enter into SBA Mentor Protégé Agreement

Huntsville, AL: Enlogica Solutions, LLC and *n*Logic, LLC have recently entered into a Mentor-Protégé agreement approved by the U.S. Small Business Administration. This agreement was based on a longstanding working relationship between both companies and will benefit the local community through increased contract dollars. The Mentor-Protégé program encourages private-sector relationships to show small businesses how to compete more successfully for federal government contracts and expands developmental business needs through subcontracting opportunities.

Enlogica Solutions is a minority-owned, small disadvantaged business that provides Information Technology and Cybersecurity services and solutions to government and commercial customers. Enlogica is a participant in the SBA's 8(a) program that is designed to help small disadvantaged businesses compete in the federal marketplace. *n*Logic has been listed on the Inc 5000 list for fastest growing companies eight times and has won multiple business awards for their quality and leadership abilities. *n*Logic provides an array of Information Technology, Cybersecurity and advanced technology services to multiple government and commercial customers across the United States.

"*n*Logic is pleased to formalize our mentoring relationship with Enlogica which will be a win-win-win for *n*Logic, Enlogica and our customers." said Tim Thornton, CEO/President of *n*Logic.

As the Mentor, *n*Logic will make available managerial, technical, business development and contracting support and participate in technology transfer to help Enlogica grow its revenues and client base, thus allowing the company to become a stronger organization.

"*n*Logic's commitment to the Mentor-Protege program and the wealth of resources and experience they bring are immeasurable," said Gabriel Mena, President of Enlogica Solutions. "We are looking forward to adopting *n*Logic's business processes and aligning our market strategies to expand our customer base as we joint venture forward.

About Enlogica: Enlogica Solutions is an SBA 8(a) Certified Small Disadvantaged Business that provides Information Technology Services and Solutions to Government and Commercial customers.
